

BIOMASS FOR BIOENERGY FORUM

9:30am – 3:00pm, Wednesday 21 June 2017, Loxton Research Centre

Time	Topic
9.30am	Introduction &amp; Opening Remarks Jo Podoliak - Chief Executive Officer, RDA Murraylands & Riverland
9.45am	SA Government Grant and Funding Programs – Making sense of it all Richard Webster - Principal Adviser, Low Carbon Economy Unit, Dept. of Premier and Cabinet
10:00am	Introducing ECHO2: base load, low-cost energy and biochar from organic residues. Peter Burgess - Managing Director, Rainbow Bee Eater Pty Ltd
10.20am	Yorke Straw Biomass Energy Project Terry Kallis – Executive Director, Petratherm Ltd
10.40am	The Hidden Value of Organic Wastes Michelle Pennington - Process Engineer, ADI Systems
11.00am	Morning Tea
11.20am	Transforming Riverland Food Loss and Industry Waste Project Kieran Hirlam - Project Engineer, Australian Wine Research Institute
11.40am	The Circular Economy in SA – Identifying the best regional business opportunities Andrew Hutcheon – Principal Adviser, Industry Sustainability, Green Industries SA
11.50pm	ARENA'S Activities in South Australia Charlotte Rouse – Client Manager, Australian Renewable Energy Agency
12.10pm	The Bioenergy Roadmap for South Australia The Australian Biomass for Bioenergy Assessment Mary Lewitzka – Bioenergy Resources Project Officer, Renewables SA, Dept. of Premier and Cabinet
12.30pm	LUNCH – By Salt and Pepper Catering
1.30pm	Quick Fire Session – Regional Case Examples Mark Anderson - Bioenergy : The Tarac Experience Thus Far Nekta Nicolaou - TFI Waste Water Treatment – Waste to Resource
2.00pm	Starting your business on the bioenergy journey
2.10pm	Technology Networking Tables Enjoy a refreshment and a chat with the experts in the room.